The General Committee may, upon being authorised thereto by a Resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting at a Special General meeting of the Club:-

- (a) Borrow such sums of money as may be required for the proper upkeep of the Club, or additions or improvements to the Club's property upon such terms, conditions and security as may by such Resolution be fixed or otherwise as the General Committee in its discretion may think fit, provided that due notice be given in terms of the Rules dealing with Annual Ordinary or Special Meetings, stating the amount proposed to be borrowed and the purpose of the loan.
- (b) Carry out the sale, mortgage, leasing or other disposition of any property of the Club.
- (c) Purchase, lease or otherwise acquire immovable property or any share therein, shares in a company the assets of which consist wholly or substantially of immovable property, for the purpose of investing such funds as may have been accumulated from time to time in the Amortisation Fund or from any other investment or generally, as may be necessary to carry out the objects of the Club.
- (d) Impose a levy or levies on members as may be required for the proper upkeep of the Club, or for additions or improvements to the Club's property upon such terms and conditions as may by such resolution be determined. Such sum or sums of money received shall be invested in an account in the name of the Trustees with a registered South African Banking Institution and shall be known as the "Building Fund".

Notwithstanding the above, the General Committee may authorise the borrowing of such sum or sums of money from a bank as may be required at any time for the administration of Club affairs on the security of Club funds invested for a fixed term in such bank or building society.

17. AUDIT

- (a) An Auditor, who shall be a firm of Chartered Accountants shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting in each year, whose duty it shall be to audit all the accounts of the Club. If at any Annual General Meeting no Auditor be elected, the Auditor then acting shall continue in office as if re-elected. If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of Auditor, the General Committee shall forthwith fill the same. No members of the General Committee shall be elected Auditor.
- (b) The Auditor shall be supplied with copies of the income and expenditure accounts and Balance Sheet intended to be laid before the Club at the Annual General Meeting a reasonable time before the meeting to which the same are to be submitted, and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and to report to the Club thereon at the Annual General Meeting.
- (c) The Auditor shall have access to the books and accounts of the Club at all reasonable times, and he may in relation thereto examine the General Committee or other Officers of the Club.

18. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS:

The Club may sue and be sued in any competent Court of Law in the name of its Secretary for the time being.

19. INDEMNITY

The General Committee, the Auditor and Flag Officers and other Officers for the time being of the Club and every one of them and every one of their heirs executors and administrators shall be indemnified and held harmless out of the funds and property of the Club, from and against all actions, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them, their heirs, executors or administrators shall or may incur or sustain by and by reason of any act done, concurred in or omitted in or about the execution of their duties, or supposed duty in their respective offices, except such, if any, as they shall incur or sustain by or through their own wilful neglect or default respectively and none of them shall be answerable for the acts or defaults of the other or others of them or for any bankers or other persons with whom any monies or effects belonging to the Club may be lodged or deposited for safe custody or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security upon which any monies of or belonging to the Club shall be placed out or invested or for any loss, or losses, misfortune or damage which may attain in the execution of the respective offices or in relation thereto except the same shall happen by or through their own wilful neglect or default respectively.

20. ALTERATION OF THIS CONSTITUTION:

- (a) This Constitution shall not in any way be rescinded, amended, altered or added to, except by Resolution passed at a Special General Meeting, notice of which shall have been posted or sent by e-mail to members at his last registered address or e-mail address at least ten days prior to the meeting stating the intention to deal with and specify the nature of the recession, alteration or amendment. Such Resolution shall only be deemed to be passed if assented to by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- (b) All amendments, alterations, additions to and deletions from the Constitution shall, unless therein otherwise provided, be and become effective from the date of the passing thereof. A certificate under the hand of the Commodore certifying the Constitution as amended or setting forth the amendments, alterations, additions and deletions therein shall be final and conclusive evidence thereof for all parties.

21. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING:

The Annual General Meeting of the Club shall be held not later than the last week in August each year at which the election of Officers for the ensuing year shall take place, and the General Committee's report, together with the Accounts and Balance Sheet, fully audited, shall be presented.

22. NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING:

The Secretary shall, not less than ten days prior to the Annual General Meeting, post or send by e-mail a notice to each member at his last registered address or e-mail address, stating the date, place and time of the meeting and specifying the business to be dealt with at such meeting.

The non-receipt of such notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any meeting. Notice of Meetings may be inserted in a local newspaper as the General Committee may decide.

23. SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

The General Committee may convene a Special General Meeting of members at any time provided notice of such meeting is posted or sent by e-mail to members at least ten days prior to such meeting to each member at his last registered address or e-mail address, stating the object of the meeting and/or the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat. The non-receipt of such notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any such meetings.

The General Committee shall convene a Special General Meeting as provided above upon being required to do so by a requisition signed by not less than twelve Honorary Life, Life, Retired, Family (nominated), Ordinary, Country or Corporate (nominated) members in good standing and addressed to the Secretary of the Club. Such requisition shall state the object of the proposed meeting and/or the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the General Committee shall not be required to convene a Special General Meeting on requisition if the object of the proposed meeting is to consider a proposal or resolution substantially similar to any proposal or resolution which has been considered by a General Meeting during the twelve months preceding the date of the requisition.

24. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

The Quorum at General Meetings shall consist of 50 members eligible to vote, subject to the provisions of Clause 27.

If within a quarter of an hour from the time appointed for holding any General Meeting the quorum of members shall not be present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved, in any other case it shall stand adjourned until the same day and hour of the following week, and the members then present shall form a quorum.

25. TRUSTEES

- (1) There shall, at all times be three Trustees, who shall be members of the Club. In the event of any of the Trustees dying or becoming disqualified, another Trustee shall be elected in his place, either at the first General Meeting of the Club held after such death or disqualification, or at a Special General Meeting called in terms of the Constitution for the purpose.
- (2) Trustees shall be elected at a General Meeting or Special General Meeting of the Club after having been duly proposed and seconded by members of no less than five years continuous membership.
- (3) A Trustee shall be disqualified if:-
 - (a) He ceases to be a member of the Club, or
 - (b) He gives notice of his resignation from his office, or
 - (c) He becomes insolvent or assigns his Estate for the benefit of his creditors, or
 - (d) He is found lunatic or becomes of unsound mind.
- (3) The duties of the Trustees shall be:-
 - (a) To hold all the Club's immovable property.
 - (b) To hold the surplus funds as may be committed to them by the Club in General Meeting assembled or by the General Committee for the Club upon such objects as may be then defined.
 - (b) To hold the surplus funds as may be committed to them by the Club in General Meeting assembled or by the General Committee for the Club upon such objects as may be then defined.
 - (c) To see that the property and funds so committed to their charge are dealt with only in accordance with the Constitution of the Club or any directions which may be given by a General Meeting of the Club in terms of any resolution which may be passed by the General Committee of the Club in accordance with any powers vested in it for that purpose.

26. WINDING UP

The Club may be wound up by a resolution of not less than three fourths of the members present at a Special General Meeting provided that no less than thirty days' notice at least shall have been given, setting out the business of the meeting and at least sixty per cent of all the members eligible to vote being present.

Upon winding-up or dissolution, the assets remaining after the settlement of all liabilities shall be transferred to another yacht club provided that it is a recreational club approved by the Commissioner of the South African Revenue Services or a Public Benefit Organisation contemplated by the Income Tax Act, 1962 and which has been approved in terms of s30(3) of the Act.

27. LEGALITY OF CONSTITUTION AND RULES

Should any Clause of the Constitution or Rules be in conflict with the Liquor Act 1928 as amended, or any Act passed in place thereof, then such Clause or Rule shall be automatically altered, modified or replaced so as to comply with the Provisions of such Act.

RULES

COMMITTEES: POWERS AND RULES

1. NOMINATIONS FOR OFFICE AND COMMITTEES

Nominations for all Offices and Committees must be handed to the Secretary on a "Proposal for Office" form to be posted on the Notice Board at least seven days before the Annual General Meeting, each form to be signed by the member nominated, and by two other voting members of the Club.

MEMBERSHIP RULES

13. DEFAULTING MEMBERS

Any member who fails to discharge his liability to the Club, as defined by Clause 12 of the Constitution, within twenty-one days after written notice warning him of the General Committee's intention has been posted to the address last registered by him with the Club, may be declared to be a defaulting member by the General Committee as from the date of the expiration of such twenty-one days' notice. The General Committee shall thereupon remove from the list of members the name of any such member declared a defaulter in terms of the Clause, and shall be empowered to place the names of defaulting members on a list provided for that purpose on the Club Notice Board.

Notwithstanding the fact that a member has been declared a defaulter in terms of this Clause, his liability to the Club, at the date of the declaration of default shall nevertheless continue until discharged.

14. RE-INSTALEMENT OF DEFAULTING MEMBERS

Application by a defaulting member for re-instatement must be accompanied by a remittance for the full amount owing at the date of declaration of default. Such application shall be posted on the Club Notice Board for a period of seven days, after which the General Committee shall use its discretion in respect of the admission or otherwise of the applicant as a member.

15. PRIVILEGES OF YOUTH MEMBERS

The privileges of Youth members shall be the use of such of the Club's premises as the General Committee may decide upon and the right to compete in any race open to members of the Club.

16. PRIVILEGES OF INTERMEDIATE AND STUDENT MEMBERS

Intermediate members shall have the full privileges of any Ordinary member of the Club save that they may not vote at General meetings, nor may they be nominated or elected to act as Flag Officers, nor may they propose or second any person for any office in the Club or for membership of the Club, nor may they enjoy any credit facilities.

17. PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS

Honorary Life, Life, Retired, Family (nominated), Ordinary, Country or Corporate (nominated) members shall enjoy the full privileges of the Club, provided that no member shall propose or second any person for membership of the Club, nor may he nominate or second a member for any Committee of the Club until he shall have completed two years of membership, or for any Office of the Club until he shall have completed five years of membership.

Honorary and Visiting members shall enjoy the full privileges of the Club, with the exception of Voting or attending at Meetings, proposing or seconding new members, becoming Flag Officers or members of any Committee, enjoying credit facilities save with the approval of the General Committee and wearing the Club insignia provided that, where the General Committee is of the opinion that such a privilege is merited, it may allow any distinguished Honorary member to wear Club Insignia.

19. EXCLUSION FROM PRIVILEGES

No members shall take part in the proceedings at any meeting of the Club or enter or steer his or any yacht in a Club race or match, or make use of the Club House, while under suspension, or while he be a defaulting member.

Any member who fails to pay his current monthly subscription by the last day of August in any such current Club year, shall be debarred from enjoying the privileges of the Club as set out in the preceding paragraph until such current month's subscription shall have been paid. Should any member incur any liability other than his subscription to the Club and fail to discharge such debt on due notice, the Committee shall have the right to deal with such member under this Clause as though such a debt were an annual subscription remaining unpaid on the last day of August of any current Club year.

20. RESIGNATION FROM MEMBERSHIP

Any member wishing to resign membership of the Club must intimate such intention, in writing, to the Secretary prior to the 1st June, otherwise he will be liable for the following year's subscription. No notice of resignation of any member shall be of any force and effect should the resigning member be liable to the Club, at the date of the notice of resignation, in respect of any items provided by Clause 12. Notwithstanding the fact that a member has resigned his membership, he shall nevertheless be liable for any debts incurred by him while a member.

Any ex-member who was in good standing when his resignation was accepted may, at the discretion of the General Committee, re-join as a member without payment of an entrance fee.

21. CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

Should the conduct of any member, either in or out of the Club House, upon being reported to the General Committee, be in its opinion (after full enquiry) unseemly, unsportsmanlike or injurious to the character and interests of the Club, or should any member persistently refuse to conform to any Rules, Regulations or Bye-laws, which may from time to time be in force, the General Committee may expel, suspend or request such member to resign. Should he not comply with a request that he resign, within fourteen days from the date of the letter to him containing such request, the General Committee shall be empowered to remove his name from the List of Members.

The General Committee shall also be empowered to place the name of any such expelled or suspended member on a list provided for that purpose on the Club Notice Board.

22. INSOLVENCY OR CRIMINAL CONVICTION OF A MEMBER

(1) Should any member:-

- a) become bankrupt, either individually or as a partner of a firm, or should he or his firm surrender his or its estate or assign it for the benefit of creditors;
- b) be a controlling shareholder of a company or a majority holder or a member's interest in a close corporation which, because of its insolvent circumstances, is placed in provisional or final liquidation;
- c) otherwise be brought under the insolvency laws of the Republic of South Africa.

The General Committee may require such member to satisfy it, by written representation delivered within fourteen (14) days that such insolvency in no way affects his honour, upon receipt of which representation the General Committee shall decide whether such member's membership shall be suspended, terminated, or be subject to such curtailment of privileges for a period as it deems fit.

(2) The foregoing procedure shall also apply to any criminal conviction of a member which the General Committee, by two-thirds majority, considers prima facie to affect the honour of a member.

23. EXPULSION

Any member of the Club who may have been suspended or expelled for misconduct or default by any other Club in South Africa, shall ipso facto cease to be a member of the Club. He shall, however, have the right of appeal to the General Committee, which may re-instate such member should a satisfactory explanation of the matter be forthcoming.

24. RIGHT OF APPEAL

Any member whose membership may have been dealt with under Rules governing Defaulters, Unseemly Conduct, Insolvency or Expulsion shall have the right of appeal to a Special Committee consisting of three members. This Committee shall be selected as follows:-

ONE member to be nominated by the General Committee

ONE member to be nominated by the member concerned with the dispute, who shall not be the member concerned or a member of his immediate family.

ONE of the Honorary Vice-Presidents of the Club selected by the Flag Officers, who shall be Chairman of the Committee.

The decision of this Special Committee shall be deemed to be final and binding upon all parties.

25. ELECTION OF MEMBERS

The method of election of members is vested solely in the General Committee, and the General Committee shall publish rules relating to the election of members from time to time.
